

The University Of Sheffield.

The Uses of Richard Hoggart: An International, Interdisciplinary Conference on Richard Hoggart's Work and Influence

Richard Hoggart is one of the leading thinkers and cultural critics in the twentieth century. His work spans disciplinary boundaries and has influenced many of the leading scholars and writers of the post-war generation and beyond.

The conference will celebrate his work and its influence across these boundaries, including papers from scholars of English Literature and Language, Education, Cultural Studies, Politics and Sociology.

Richard Hoggart himself will be the keynote speaker. Other speakers include Simon Hoggart, Stuart Hall, Lawrence Grossberg, David Lodge, Stefan Collini, John Hartley, Jim McGuigan, Jonathan Rose, Jon Nixon, Robert Young, Richard E. Lee, Paul Filmer, Tom Steele, Sandie Byrne, Sean Matthews, Michael Wolff, Lawrence Aspden, Katie Wales, and Sue Owen.

The University
Of Sheffield.

Monday 3 – Wednesday 5 April 2006
Tupton Hall, University of Sheffield, UK

Contact: Dr. Sue Owen, Dept. of English Literature, University of Sheffield, S10 2TN.
Email s.j.owen@sheffield.ac.uk, Tel. (0)114 2228469, Fax. (0)114 2228481
Website: <http://www.shef.ac.uk/english/events/hoggart.html>